Weddings

Here at Enterkine we understand the importance of finding that perfect setting for your special day and we believe that we have created just that in our bespoke, handcrafted Oak and Glass Pavilion. The natural beauty of the sustainable sourced wood along with the wall of glass doors, opening onto a fabulous panoramic terrace with breath taking views, will provide a majestic backdrop for any couples dream day.

Enterkine House once belonging to the Honourable Alan Mackay, grandson of the first Earl of Inchcape, and founding member of the P&O shipping line has been refurbished to the highest standard whilst keeping its traditional elegance but adding a modern twist.

Enterkine House Hotel is one of Scotland's premier wedding venues. We pride ourselves on an unrivalled level of service, and our attention to detail and quality is uncompromising.

Our Menus have been crafted & created by our exceptionally talented executive chef, David Picken, but are fully flexible and can be tailored to meet all needs and tastes.
